Ref. 5308: Trullo and farmhouse restoration project in the countryside of Cisternino
Asking Price: € 139.000

Description

Characteristics :

- Living area: 100 m²
- Plot area: 3,300 m²
- Condition: to be restored

For sale a beautiful complex of trulli from the 1800s consisting of 9 cones and 3 lamias for a total of about 100 m² located a few kilometers from the romantic town of Cisternino.

The property consists of a central sovereign trullo with original chianche stones, 6 other cones connected internally and 2 other cones attached to the trullo but not connected.

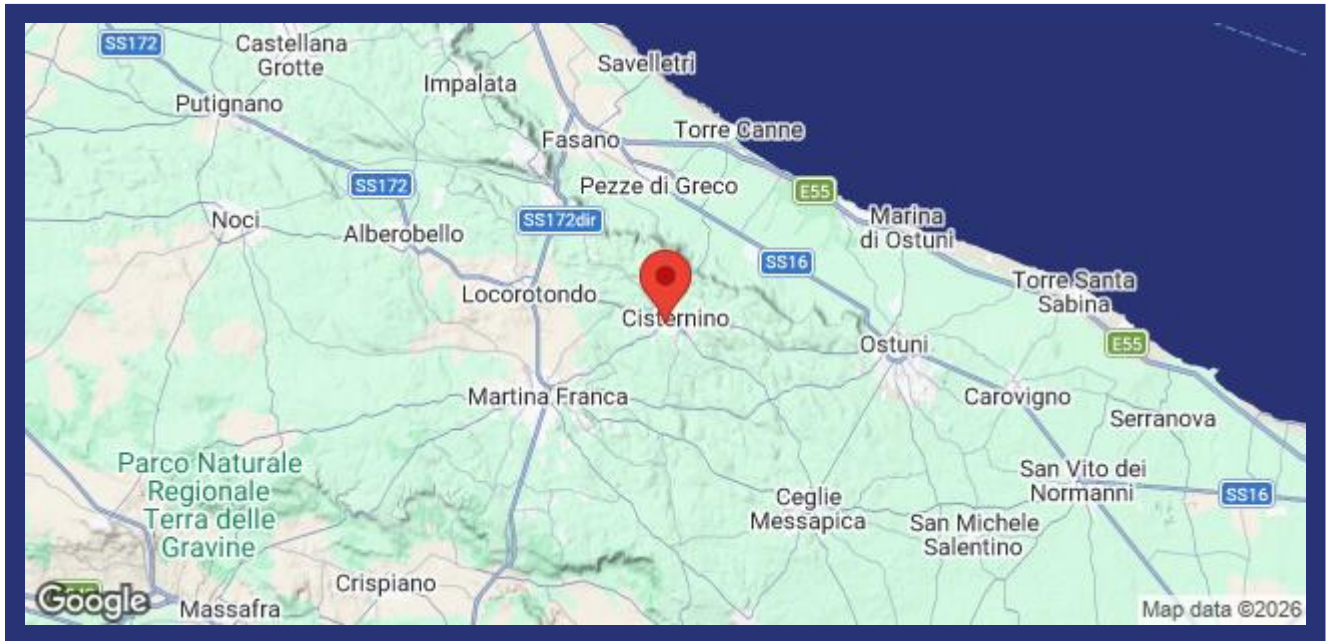

The property is surrounded by a plot of approximately 3,300 m² with cherry trees, has an old oven, fireplace and 8 water cisterns.

For those who do not know Cisternino, this town will be a pleasant surprise. Exploring it means entering one of the most picturesque villages in Puglia. An explosion of white houses, typical of the center of the city, immersed in a green landscape full of centuries-old olive trees, the traditional trulli emerge, as if they had been placed there, while in the distance you can imagine the blue of the sea. Discovering Cisternino means stepping back in time. Cisternino has the orange flag of the TCI (Italian Tourist Association) and is included in the list of the most beautiful villages in Italy and is a Slow Food city for preserving its gastronomic traditions and protecting local crops and production such as the meat for sale at one of the many butchers in the historic center. Here it is customary for the purchased meat to be prepared in the summer in a room next to the butcher's shop and consumed by taking a seat at the tables specially set up in the open air.

The entrance to the town is through the Torre di Porta Grande which dates back to the Middle Ages and is built in Norman style; Characteristic beyond the height of 17 meters is the statue of Saint Nicola that is placed on top of the building. You can't help but notice the beauty of the center, where you can admire prestigious buildings such as Palazzo Lagravinese, Palazzo Vescovile, Palazza Amati, Palazzo del Governatore and Torre Capece, which alternate in a maze of alleys with spectacular views.

As in other centers of Puglia, Cisternino also guards rites, customs and folklore. This is, for example, the case of the patronal feast of San Quirico, which takes place in the first week of August, where concerts, fireworks, processions and markets fill the city, as it also happens on Easter Monday, called Pasquarèddè, where the Madonna della Prosperità is honored at the sanctuary of the Madonna d'Ibèrnia. Throughout the year many typical festivals take place in Cisternino and the surrounding area, the most important of which are the festivals of grapes, rabbit and orecchiette. In addition, Cisternino also hosts the Festival delle Pietre and the Festival of the Bande Musicali della Valle d'Itria, which attract thousands of tourists every year.

About ItaliaCasa

ItaliaCasa is a fully accredited Italian real estate agency, specialized in the assistance of foreign property buyers in the most beloved parts of Italy. We combine the best of two worlds. Firmly settled in Italy, we do not forget our northern European roots. Our multilingual representatives in Italy are a guarantee for a perfect understanding of the local market conditions. We understand our international clients as we do understand the Italian way of doing business. This enables us to offer to our clients the best possible assistance during the buying process.

Why choose for ItaliaCasa?

A successful purchase in Italy does not end with the finding of the right property on a web site. Especially nowadays an interested buyer can find many intermediaries and web portals through which foreign properties are being offered for sale. Often these type of companies lack any knowledge of Italian real estate, the market situation and the legal system in Italy. It is important to choose an officially registered agency who not only knows their properties, but also can properly facilitate the entire buying process with its expertise. According to ItaliaCasa this is when the important part only begins. The completion of the purchase is the work of specialists who know where problems can arise and which matters require extra attention during the purchase. All land registry, legal and permit aspects are being mapped so the interests of the client are optimally being looked after. The end result is a purchase without worries!
